

POSITION AVAILABLE

PASTORAL COUNSELING OF NORTHERN VIRGINIA (PCNV) has a position available for a full-time well-qualified counselor/therapist. PCNV is a non-profit pastoral counseling center with offices located throughout Northern Virginia. PCNV has a multi-disciplined staff providing pastoral counseling and psychotherapy to individuals, couples, families, adolescents and children.

The applicant should have appropriate education, credentials and certification/licensure (or nearing completion of such).

While not necessary, preference is given to those currently practicing in Northern Virginia who already possess or desire a full-time caseload, looking to join an experienced, collegial and non-hierarchical setting in which to do their work.

PCNV offers an attractive compensation package based on a high percentage of fees collected, as well as Accountable Reimbursement Policy, Section 125 Medical Cafeteria Plan, Conference/Continuing Education/ Wellness Funds, 401(k), Clergy Housing Allowance and Travel Allowance. In addition, PCNV offers a collegial setting, flexible work schedule and provides both professional liability and general liability insurance.

Interested candidates should submit a letter expressing their professional goals and reasons for wanting to join PCNV along with a current resume to Dr. Gary L. Hulme at:
